Well done everyone—You looked AMAZING

Friday 24 March

This term's curriculum celebration will take place Wednesday 29th March. The theme for this term has been 'The Titanic'. The children have enjoyed taking on the role of underwater marine archaeologists, in order to find out as much information as they could about the Titanic. You are invited to come in to the school hall at 2.30pm to see the news reels they have compiled, showing some of their exciting learning.

Easter Egg Hunt

A group of parents have kindly offered to organise a PTFA Easter Egg hunt next week. This will take place on Wednesday morning in the school field (weather permitting).

Tickets to participate in the Easter Egg hunt can be purchased from the School office from Monday 27th March at a cost of £1.50

There will be a prize for the child who collects the most eggs in each class and Easter treats for everyone who participates.

Mother's Day poems—Sapphire class

A BIG Thank you to the COOP on Queen Street who organised a Mother's Day Poetry competition. All of the children in Sapphire class wrote a poem about a person who they care about and who cares for them. Katie and Jade who work at the COOP came to Collective Worship today to present the prizes—Well done everyone!

PLEASE CLEAR YOUR DEBTS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE

THE RAMP DOOR WILL BE LOCKS AT 9AM SHARP—Children arriving after this time MUST enter school via the main entrance

ALL CHILDREN SHOULD BE IN CLASS & SEATED READY FOR REGISTRATION BEFORE 9AM.

WE ARE REQUIRED TO RECORD ANYONE ARRIVING AFTER 9AM AS LATE.

LUNCHTIME AWARD

Harvey took care to make sure that his friend was Ok when he was accidentally hurt in the playground—Thank you Harvey for being compassionate and kind.

Star Awards

RUBY

Taseen has worked really hard to practise his reading at home. He has also joined in enthusiastically with class discussions which has been lovely to see. Keep it up Taseen!

Emerald

Holly has produced some fantastic writing this week, she has remembered capital letters and full stops and has tried really hard to form her letters correctly. Keep it up Holly!

Sapphire

Isabelle was chosen by her friends in Sapphire class to be the star learner this week because they recognised that she has made really good choices, she has been absorbed and excited by her learning and has made an effort to play with LOTs of children.

Dylan has shown a positive attitude to his learning, he is keen to help others and always supports and encourages others who are finding things tricky. Thank you Dylan

Diamond

Robin has made fantastic contributions to class discussions this week and has produced some amazing writing about the Titanic. Well done Robin!

Miya has displayed an excellent attitude to her learning this week, in particular she has excelled at converting mixed numbers and improper fractions. Tricky Stuff!

School menus - Summer term

There are new menus for the summer term. Due to technical issues, it is unlikely they will be available online until Monday next week (27th March). We will send a message out as soon as the new menus are on ParentPay. You will then be able to order in the normal way. Thank you for your patience.

Last day of term Friday 31st March
